

UNEARTHED

We dig up the latest backyard buys and garden news

EDITED BY VERA KLEIN

GIMME SHELTER

The 'Tropics' beach tent range from Lovin' Summer is just the thing for lazy days at the beach. The tents are lightweight, easy to assemble, have great airflow and cool, on-trend palm prints. $169; lovinsummer.com.au.

Luxury US outdoor furniture group Janus Et Cie opens its first Australian store in Sydney's Rushcutters Bay in November; janusetcie.com

chair necessities

A clever inclusion to Utopia Goods' first outdoor collection – think water-repellent and UV-resistant fabrics – is the butterfly chair. Recognising that some people may just want a new cover for an existing piece, the frames, $380, and covers, $159, are sold separately; utopiagoods.com.

HOT STUFF

EXCITING NEW PRODUCTS FOR THOSE WHO LOVE COOKING ALFRESCO.

1. Robert Plumb's 'Bollyhood' tandoor oven is a ceramic powerhouse, designed to produce perfect tagines, pizzas, naan bread and smoked meats. From $2800; robertplumb.com.au.
2. The compact 'MYQ' barbecue from Ilve can be mounted to a wall and then folded flat when not in use. $1399; ilve.com.au.

shadow blocks

Even small outdoor spaces can be stylishly shaded with the new 'Ventura Terrace' folding-arm awning from Luxaflex. The frame comes in standard silver, but can be painted with any hue in the Dulux Powder Coat range, while the awning comes in myriad colours. Sizes start at 1.5m x 1.5m, and prices from $4814; luxaflex.com.au.

IT'S A WRAP!

Our search for an elegant solution to garden-hose tangles has come to an end! Made from powdercoated steel, the 'Hose Pot' by Unearthed has an inner cone and a hole at the base for a hose to connect to a tap. It's one of those form-meets-function perfected moments. From $399 (pot only); uneearthed.net.au.

